About Essmart

Essmart is a last-mile distribution company that connects 100+ socially impactful, life-improving products (such as solar lanterns, clean cooking appliances, and efficient agricultural tools) to local family-owned retail shops in southern India.

Essmart has seven offices in southern India (located mostly in Tier 3 cities), has a team of over 35 people, and works with a network of 650+ local shops. We distribute products that improve the incomes of local shop owners and have collectively improved the lives of over 175,000 end users.

Job Description

Overview of Role

The Project Manager is a member of Essmart's core management team, based in Bangalore.

As part of our current growth phase, Essmart is implementing a range of new initiatives in key strategic areas to help improve our operations and grow our sales and impact. As Project Manager, you will help Essmart design, prioritize, and execute these initiatives. You will ensure that projects are delivered on time, and that successful initiatives are built into Essmart's daily operations as we expand.

Responsibilities

- Contributing to high-level discussion and decisions about operational initiatives as part of our strategic priorities.
- Managing specific projects from start-to-finish, including:
  - Conceptualizing new projects based on Essmart's needs and strategic priorities
  - Planning the projects, including time management, resources required, and deadlines
  - Designing the project, including building back-end systems and processes

- Executing the project, including ensuring that project delivery and any required follow up is integrated into Essmart’s operations
- Analyzing the results
- Writing up any required internal or external reports
- Providing leadership and role modeling Essmart’s values across the company.

As Project Manager, you will likely manage multiple projects at the same time. Examples of current project focus areas include:

- Strategies for selection shop owners to join Essmart’s network
- Initiatives (e.g. training, marketing, etc.) to improve shop owner performance
- Data tracking, reporting, and visualization initiatives
- HR recruitment and retention programs

Qualifications

You are an expert at managing multiple initiatives at the same time, at time management, and at meeting deadlines. You are excited to learn and try new things as part of your professional development. You enjoy working on a range of diverse projects.

You are meticulous and do not let deadlines or emails slip past you. You understand that being a core part of a company involves both the high level strategy as well as the on-the-ground execution, and you are not afraid to get your hands dirty and delve into detailed work. You follow an HTS philosophy, “Handle Thy Shit” – you will work at a problem on your own to figure it out, but you are not afraid to ask for help when you need it.

You communicate well and often to your teammates, and you are adept at incorporating feedback from both senior management and junior staff into your work. You provide constructive feedback to your teammates on their work.

You are passionate about Essmart’s mission of filling the critical distribution gap and connecting life-improving products to local retail shops.

Other requirements include:

- Strong, proven time management and project management skills
- Detail oriented and data driven
- Self-driven and capable of working autonomously in a fast-paced start-up environment
- Proficient at writing reports, organizing back-end systems, and presenting findings in a clear, concise manner
- Extremely comfortable in MS Word, Excel, Powerpoint
- Proficiency in the Adobe Suite (Illustrator, InDesign) or willingness to learn is a bonus
- Fluent in written and spoken English
- Knowledge of Tamil and/or Kannada is a bonus

What you can expect

Essmart will provide:

- The opportunity to work alongside a high profile and successful international team
- The opportunity to grow and shape your own role within the company
- Media and travel opportunities to represent Essmart at global events
- Travel throughout rural India

Essmart promises to:

- Encourage you to explore new areas of interest and grow your personal skill set
- Support you in developing and testing out new ideas as part of a project
- Helping you push your comfort zone where desired
- Be responsive to your feedback and advice, and share responsibility when appropriate

All new Essmart employees start on a trial-basis, to give us both the opportunity to work together and find the best fit for growing together in the future. The trial period is not an exam, but an opportunity to find your role in Essmart. For example, in the past we have transitioned great hires into roles that are more appropriate for them based on their skills and desires.
